DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Superior Judge, JOSEPH BARBOUR.
 " Appellate Clerk, W. W. LONGMOOR.
 " County Judge, THOMAS W. VARNON.
 " County Attorney, JOSEPH E. PANTON.
 " County Clerk, GEORGE B. COOPER.
 " Sheriff, J. N. MENEFEE.
 " Jailor, SAMUEL M. OWENS.
 " Assessor, E. D. KENNEDY.
 " Sup't of Common Schools, W. F. CLARK.
 " Surveyor, HARRY A. EVANS.
 " Coroner, ARCH. CARSON.

ONE of the best speeches from a constitutional standpoint against the infamously election bill, that was made in Congress, was delivered by Mr. McCreary. Of course it had no effect on the conspirators, who had determined in advance to enact the scheme to rob the South of her rights, but they listened to it with respectful attention and even permitted the governor to continue his remarks after the speaker had called "time" on him. Among the reasons urged by Mr. McCreary against the bill was that it shows the board of canvassers, not the people, to select the members of the House of Representatives, as provided by the 1st article of the Constitution. It makes the State and Federal power in the control and management of the popular elections that confusion and collision of authority are sure to occur. It connects Federal courts with political schemes, and authorizes Federal judges to dominate and control the legislative department of the government, when the transfers of the Constitution intended that the three great co-ordinate departments should always be independent of each other; it is not needed for the regulation of Congressional elections, no State having neglected or refused to prescribe the time, place and manner of holding elections for Representatives; it will require an expense of millions of dollars annually, authorizes the appointment of nearly 200,000 new salaried officers and will bring ballots and bayonets, soldiers and supervisors, so close together at the polls that there will be no free and fair elections. And finally, said the governor, "it should be despised and defeated, because it is un-democratic, non-republican and unconstitutional."

Under the law five new stars were added to the American flag on the 4th of July, making the number 43. The five new States are North and South Dakota, Idaho, Montana and Washington. Owing to a slight difference between the House and the Senate, the rotten borough of Wyoming, which adopted its constitution by a total vote of about 8,000, with women exercising the right of suffrage, has to wait another year before she can be represented on the flag. Unfortunately, however, she will be represented long before that time by two republican senators and a republican congressman, though the entire vote of the territory is not more than a congressional district.

From a cool retreat in the Tennessee Mountains, Mr. Watterson fired four columns of red-hot matter at the Courier-Journal on the 4th. He takes Reed and his Force bill for a text and handles him and it as only a gifted writer can. The object and the baleful results of the detestable scheme to rob the people of their home rule and the States of their rightful jurisdiction, and to convert our electoral system into a machine, which a few moneyed few appliances can work from their lair in the National Capital, are portrayed with a master hand and in a manner which will have its effect on the country.

The Republican State Central Committee, which met at Danville Thursday night, formally endorsed the candidacy of Judge J. H. Tinsley for appellate clerk and adjourned. The appointment of John Barrett, a mugwump, to be postmaster at Louisville over Mr. Riley, the secretary of the committee, who was endorsed by the committee and most of the prominent republicans of the State, cast a damper over the enthusiasm of the members and the meeting wore the aspect more of a funeral gathering than of a meeting to endorse a candidate who is expected to win.

Kenton county is getting to be a miserable sore on the democratic body politic. Her conventions usually end in a row and contested delegations, but it was reserved for the superior court convention to have six separate and distinct delegations. The Commonwealth says that the outrages that have for years been perpetrated in the name of democracy, has caused the falling off of the democratic vote and will continue to reduce it.

JAMES MARSH had a well-written, five-column report of the Press Association meeting, at Winchester, in the last issue of the Mt. Vernon Signal. He and Fletcher Poynter, of the Shelbyville Sentinel, got away with most of the boys on the completeness and excellence of their accounts of the delightful meeting.

—W. R. Ramsey, a capable young lawyer, will probably represent Rockcastle and Laurel in the constitutional convention. The republicans of the former county have endorsed him.

JUDGE TINSLEY is out in a formal acceptance of the nomination for appellate clerk, which he sought at the hands of the republican committee. He very much deprecates the sectional feeling, which would cast aside a union soldier to honor a confederate cripple and inveighs in strongest terms against the keeping up of warring and memories 25 years after peace has been declared. Right you are, judge, but if you would impress this upon your northern brethren, whose favorite pastime is waving the bloody shirt, you might do more good for your country. Your letter is a very nice little bid for the votes of the "brave and gallant confederates," but it won't work. They are going to vote for Woodford W. Longmoor and elect him by 40,000 majority.

JOHN BEVIN, the republican candidate for reelection to the sheriffship of Christian county, is a man of immaculate gall. He is still running for the office, notwithstanding an investigation has revealed the fact that he is a defaulter to the amount of perhaps $20,000 and is likewise a forger. This is a small matter, however, to the republicans. They will vote for him, just the same.

Mrs. BENNET, the prohibition candidate for appellate clerk, is making a tour of the State and speaking in the principal towns. As yet we have seen no notice of her coming here, though of all places she is most needed. Those who have seen Mrs. Bennett and heard her speak feel that she is painfully lacking in beauty and far from gifted in oratory.

ANOTHER Superior Court Convention will begin to wrestle with the question of a democratic nominee at Lexington tomorrow. It is to be hoped that the delegates will show a little more sense than those who figured in the late failure.

NEWS CONDENSED

—Miss Sarah Mattingly was struck by lightning in Hardin county and instantly killed.

—Since August 3, 1887, the treasury has purchased $277,200,000 worth of bonds, for which it paid $224,707,259.

—A Pasteur institute, for the cure of rabies, has been opened in connection with the Rush medical college, Chicago.

—The earnings of the L. & N. for the year ending June 30 were $18,842,755, an increase of $2,244,357 over the previous year.

—Twenty-eight years ago last Wednesday Gen. John H. Morgan and his command made their celebrated raid into Ohio.

—There were a cold wave and a frost in Northern Wisconsin Saturday, the thermometer in some places registering as low as 38 degrees.

—The receipts of the government for the year ended June 30 were $402,000,000 and the expenditures $318,000,000, leaving a surplus of $84,000,000.

—The freight handlers on all the roads at Cincinnati are on a strike for higher wages, except those on the L. & N., and business is nearly at a standstill.

—Fifty pounds of powder exploded in a store at Scott Haven, Pa. Four were killed and two other children so severely injured that there is little hope of their recovery.

—Frank Wertland and wife, of Hoboken, drowned themselves and their infant on account of their inability to pay a chattel mortgage on their household furniture for $25.

—The New York Evening World and the Philadelphia North American printed their 4th of July editions in red, white and blue. This is certainly patriotic, but it is very hard upon the readers. —In Gov. McCreary the democrats have first-class material for the speakership of the next House and a man in every respect equipped to take Mr. Carlisle's place as leader in the House. —Cattletown Democrat.

—A novel feature of the celebration at Colorado Springs on the 4th was the illumination at night of the summit of Pike's Peak. Two barrels of kerosene and one of red fire were ignited and gave the mountain the appearance of a volcano in active eruption.

—The United Confederate Veterans Association, in camp near Chattanooga, elected John B. Gordon General-in-Chief; E. Kirby Smith, Lieutenant General, and Gen. Kohel, of Texas, Lieutenant General of the Trans-Mississippi Department.

—A cloudburst on a mountain in Texas caused a flood to sweep down over the town of Van Horn, almost inundating it. A railroad train from El Paso was suddenly surrounded by a roaring river, and before the locomotive could be stopped the water had washed away the track in front and behind.

—Lemons have not been so scarce and high for years in New York as they are at present. The fruit men attribute this to the hot weather in the West, where the demand for the fruit is great. In support of this they call attention to the fact that on last Tuesday and Wednesday we cargoes of 50,000 boxes sold at auction and brought over $200,000.

—The volume of trade, according to the commercial reports, was 13 per cent greater for the last six months and there have been fewer failures than usual. Exclusive of government payments on bonds and pensions, the disbursements on account of interest and dividends are estimated at $74,000,000, against $61,000,000 last year, and this enormous outpour of money has allayed all fear of a foreign drain.

—James Hobbs shot and killed Hiram Helton at Manchester.

—Prof. J. Douglas Bruce, A. M., of the University of Virginia, will occupy the chair of modern languages at Centre College next year.

—The Chinese minister at Washington says that unless the law excluding his countrymen from the United States be repealed, China will apply a like rule to Americans.

—A Louisville Southern train ran down a furniture car loaded with people returning from a picnic in the suburbs of Louisville. Of the 17 occupants three were killed and the rest more or less severely injured.

—A statement furnished by Bradstreet's agency shows that the number of business failures during the past six months is 452 less than for the corresponding period of 1889. The fatalities are $4,743,749 less.

—F. E. Black went up in a balloon at Beardstown, Ill., on the 4th, intending to descend by a parachute, but the whole thing caught fire when he was nearly a mile from the earth and he was dashed headlong to death.

—The C. & O. train, known as the "Fast Flying Virginian," was thrown from the track opposite front by striking a car loaded with granite that had not been set in enough on the side track. One man was killed and several others badly hurt.

—At Washburn the body of James H. Dean, who was believed to have died in a hysterical fit, was placed in a vault Thursday. Saturday the body was found completely turned in the casket and the startling discovery was made that the supposed dead woman had given birth to a child, which was, of course, dead.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

—H. M. Beverly Tucker, a Virginian, who made his mark before and during the war in public life, died in Washington Saturday, aged 70.

—Judge S. W. Brents, a well-known Green river lawyer and former member of the Kentucky Legislature, died at his home in Glasgow Saturday.

—Mr. James P. Spoonamore, brother of the proprietor of Hale's Well, Mr. A. L. Spoonamore, died at his home in Garrard last week, after a protracted illness. He was born in this county and was one of 12 brothers and sisters, eight of whom are still living. His wife was a daughter of the Rev. James Crow and she with six children is left to mourn a terrible loss. Mr. Spoonamore was a member of the Methodist Church and a conscientious, christian man.

—Mrs. Amanda Bellet, sister of Mr. John A. Allen, of this place, died at Somerset last week of consumption, with which she had been sorely afflicted for over two years. Besides her husband, she leaves three little children to suffer a mother's loss. It was parting with them that gave her concern in the final hour. As to herself she was fully prepared to meet her Maker and anxious and willing to go to Him. Rev. Harvey Glass, of the Presbyterian church, of which congregation she was a member, preached the funeral sermon, after which the remains were interred in the Somerset cemetery.

—Died, July 1st, at her home in Philadelphia, Mo., Mrs. Lucy E. wife of J. B. Terrill, and daughter of Wm. H. and Mary Beasley, of near Lancaster. The deceased was born Jan. 4th, 1851. She leaves a husband, three children and many friends to mourn her loss. Of the children, one is a girl, nearly 14, and the youngest boy is nearly three. She had for many years been in delicate health, but in January last the foul monster, la grippe, did its work, leaving her with consumption. She suffered but little pain till near death, then she had an unwavering hand to sustain her.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Francis Murphy's five months' labor in Iowa has resulted in 27,000 signatures to the pledge.

—Rev. R. Hiner, of Mt. Sterling, will dedicate the new Methodist church at Sweet Owen, July 13.

—Mr. Williams, said to be a successful evangelist, will begin a protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church on the 3d Sunday.

—Rev. John Ball Gibson writes that he will be with his congregation next Sunday, when he will preach on "Bible Study at the Chautauque."

—The fourth quarterly meeting of the year will be held at the Methodist church here next Saturday and Sunday. Presiding Elder J. Rand will officiate.

—I have never used a vulgar word from this stand, and the man who says I have is a foul mouthed liar.—Sam Jones. This very elegant remark ought to remove all doubt.

—Dr. Talmage receives $15,000 a year from his Brooklyn congregation, $12,500 from a firm for the advance publication of his sermons, $6,500 for his contributions to a religious journal, besides what he earns on the lecture platform and from general literary work. He would lose money if he traded his income for that of the president of the United States.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Will Porter bought of Charley Spoonamore a combined gelding for $110.

—Miller John Bright sold to John Johnson 37 hogs, weighing about 205 lbs., at 3¢.

—Tom Hall, the sire of Little Brown Jug and other famous racing horses, died at Buford's, Tenn., aged 28.

THEY STAND AMAZED & WATCH US GROW.

The enormous increase of sales in all the departments of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Carpets, Matting, &c., makes it absolutely imperative for us to increase the space devoted to every department of our establishment. When we came here our friends had some doubts of

OUR SUCCESS

And our competitors had hopes of our failure. But with "spot cash" for our corner stone, sound business principles for our guide, and with a reputation for fair and honorable dealing, we have built wisely, strongly, and und we thought largely. But the unprecedented business of the past twelve months has even surpassed our own expectations and we are

CRAMPED FOR ROOM.

We have sought the best trade, offering the best goods, and avoiding humbuggery, deception and fraud. Our methods and our low cash prices have inspired confidence and brought us a steady, continuous, increasing stream of prosperity and our competitors have little to do but stand amazed and watch us grow. Now is the time to buy. We are disposing of our Summer Stock at cost and in many instances below cost. Behold these inducements: All our 10c and 1 1/2 1-2c Suits will be sold this week at 8 1/2-1. All the best American Suits which were sold at a great bargain at 20c will be sold at 15c. All our French Suits which were sold at a sacrifice for 25c will be sold at 20c. Call early; at these prices they'll not last long.

—Iude Boon, the pride of Kentucky, fell before Santiago, the pride of California, in the steer, but stakes at Chicago.

—The first bale of new cotton was received at Albany Saturday from a farm occupied by colored tenants in Baker county, Ga.

—John F. Cash, a large farmer, & Burns, 12 head of registered cattle at 2 1/2 cents and Mr. Ayres, of Casey 40 of same at same price.

—Colburn & Brent's storage house for hemp and mac anser, in Paris, burned, entailing a loss of $7,000, with $3,000 insurance. It contained 20 seed stripping machines, 12 tons of hemp and various other articles.

—Joseph Coffey bought this week of Ingram & Gray one pair of 4-year-old mules for $340. Wyatt Hughes sold on Wednesday 20 barrels of corn at the crib for $2.25 per barrel. Wm. and Bob Baker have sold thirteen of 500 bushels of wheat to George Cogar for 75 cents per bushel. Wyatt Hughes sold to same 400 bushels at same price.—Advocate.

—The Lebanon Enterprise reports sales of a large number of lands at 5 cents, 50 stock cows at $1.50 and the following: "Mattingly & Co. bought of W. B. Jarboe 28 mules at $175, of B. S. Mattingly 41 at $175, of Ben. Shims, of Washington, 10 at $182, of John Peterson, same county, 20 at $165. The prices paid were good, but they were extra sugar mules. James Wattlen bought of Sandy Smith and J. B. Graves, 120 hogs three months ago to be delivered the 1st of July at 4 cents. When they were delivered Mr. Wattlen offered the parties $200 to let him off, as hogs were only worth from $1.25 to $1.50 in Louisville on his offer was refused."

As I may not be in Stanford more than two or three weeks longer, I hope those indebted to me will make special effort to settle up during that time. My lot on Main street is offered for sale on easy terms. Take a look at it. It is considered a bargain. T. E. Walton.

This mistake of the average mail clerk exceeds many fold those of the late lamented Moses, but it was reserved for one on the Cincinnati Southern to be guilty of the most foolish we ever heard of. He returned one of our papers addressed to Chattanooga, Tenn., with "No such place in State named." This fellow ought to get drawing money from the government, he does not earn and go to school a few years.

The B. B. S. Messenger (Hill) Friday night as Messrs. W. B. McKinney, C. C. Carson and E. V. Walton were returning from Hales Well, their buggy was overturned. Mr. Walton was thrown to the ground and badly cut on the chest and neck, the bone of the former being laid bare for several inches. He was so hurt in the knee and otherwise considerably upset. Dr. Peyton dressed the wounds and the sufferer is doing fairly well, though it will be some time before he can resume his duties. Mr. Carson was also out on the chin, but not severely. The horse and vehicle, strange to say, were but slightly damaged.

When the Hustonville Base-Ball team from Louisville took their positions on the ball grounds here on the glorious Fourth, they showed up so well and were such a splendid set of fellows, even the most sanguine backers of the old reliable Interior Journalists, began to feel weak in the knees for the home boys and feeling of sympathy rather than of confidence of success went out for them. The visitors were extended the courtesy of choice for town or country and they chose the latter. George Penny was the first to bat and a smile went over the pitcher's face as he took his position to "saw him out." But such was not the case, for the first ball that left his hands was sent to the remote part of left field and a "home run" was made. Joe Embury then came to the bat and made a good base hit and was given second by balls when Shanks secured first. Ed Hann then followed the example of Penny and Embury and gave Embury home and Shanks second. Walton got to first by a right field hit and later on got to second, but McRoberts, Burton and Davidson were put out and the visitors then took town. Prince, Wisting and Keenan got in runs and the first inning stood 3 and 0. Embury and Hann got in two runs and the Hustonville made one. The third and fourth innings were a couple of "goose eggs" for our boys, while the visitors got one score in the third and nothing in the fourth. The fifth the I. J.'s made 1 score and the seventh they made another, giving a total of 7. The Louisville boys made nothing in the fifth, but in the sixth they were more successful and scored four. The seventh and eighth they got naughts and were winners by a score of 9 to 7. In justice to our club we will say that Wilson and Rice, the crack battery, were neither here and the nine was an unusually weak one.

The afternoon game was called at about 4 o'clock and the lovers of the sport for miles around had gathered to see the final outcome. The ladies, who are as fond of the game as the gentlemen, were also there and they seemed to put a new spirit in the home club for they played ball for all they were worth. The strength of the club had also been augmented by George A. McRoberts, and Alex Hann, of Danville, and the prospects for a winning looked extremely good. The visitors chose the country again and a new pitcher was put in. Alex Hann made a score and the visitors came in and tied with it. The second and third innings resulted in a goose egg and a score for the I. J.'s, and a couple of the former for the Hustonville. In the fourth Ed Hann, Will Shanks and George McRoberts made runs, putting the score 5 to 1 in our favor. The fifth our boys did nothing while the visitors scored 1 and the sixth gave us 1 and the visitors 2. Renewed energy seemed to come to the "old reliables" in the seventh and E. Hann, George A. McRoberts, Walton, Burton and Geo. McRoberts each made a score. The Hustonville were not asleep when they came to bat and added three scores to their column. Our boys got another score in the eighth and nothing in the ninth. The eighth and ninth gave two "goose eggs" to the visitors and the game at the finish stood 12 to 7. The battery for the I. J.'s in the forenoon game was Hann and Embury and Penny and Hann and for the afternoon the Hann brothers, Alex and Ed did the work superbly. Both games were good ones and our boys did themselves proud. We still claim for our namesakes the championship of this section and are willing to pit them against any club in these parts.

Mrs. Mary B. Patten, of school district 49, comes back at her accusers in lively style and her communication will appear in next issue.

A citizen tells us that most sufficient to kill a morning glory vine showed up at his house Friday morning. We didn't swear him to the statement, but it was really cool that day and Saturday and yesterday were not so brooding not as it had been.

The Nashville American publishes an interview with Vice President Edwards, of the Desatur, Chesapeake & New Orleans, which is backed by the E. T. V. & Co., that gives some consolation to those who wish to see the Cumberland road built. He says his road is striking for this point and if Nashville will do her part it will be built at no distant day.

The saloon keepers denied that discrimination was the better part of valor and paid the $30 fine demanded by City Attorney Varnon, in preference to going into a trial of the cases against them, for keeping open Sundays. In justice to Mr. Varnon it is stated that his bar was opened against his wishes, and that he was a victim from the start to pay any reasonable fine.

The storehouse of Isaac Hamilton, at Rowland, was entered on the night of the 4th by someone who made his way up through the floor. Strange as it may appear there is nothing missing, though it is not likely the thief went to 20 feet to make a hole for nothing. Mr. Hamilton says he will see that the next man, who makes that kind of a cut on him, meets with a warm reception.

It is rumored that Hon. Ezra S. Gooch will be the prohibition candidate for county judge. We do not believe it. Mr. Gooch is certainly too honorable a man to thus fly in the face of the party, which nominated him a few years ago by making him our representative in the legislature, and nothing short of his own assertion that he will be a candidate will convince us that he would be guilty of such ingratitude, to use no stronger term.

The Interior Journalists leave this morning for a five days' trip and will look horns with some of the best amateur base ball clubs in the country. They will go directly to Mr. Sterling and there play a couple of games, this afternoon and tomorrow morning thence to Paris, Cincinnati, Winchester and probably Lexington. Manager Penny has secured some splendid talent and our namesakes will, we believe, fully maintain their reputation as good ball players, as well as being a team composed exclusively of gentlemen. The following players will wear the "I. J." uniform and unless something very strange happens, will return bearing the pennant, both for good ball playing and good behavior, and will meet with a most cordial welcome from the legion who admire the sport in this section: Bowman, Mackin, Rice, Wilson, Morrow, Nelson, Keenan, Embury, Davidson, Hann. Some of the above are not Stanford boys but all of them have played with the I. J.'s and are signers of that club.
